2 Bedroom Edinburgh Holiday Apartment

One of the first flats to be built in the New Town by James Craig in 1790 and directly adjacent to the Edinburgh town house of Sir Walter Scott! Two bedrooms - one master, (with super king-size divan) and stunning castle views.

Lounge

large elegant lounge with two large windows, contemporary furnishings and decor with two comfortable sofas and a marble dining table and chairs for six. There is a large Sony flat screen TV with access to Sky and Apple television.

Bedrooms

Two bedrooms - one master, (with super king-size divan) and stunning views of Edinburgh Castle.

One single (but just large enough for two with a single bed that converts to an additional single).

Bathroom

State of the art Kitchen and Bathroom - limestone throughout. Double bath and steam shower, under-floor heating and limestone wet-room.

Kitchen

Fully fitted contemporary, luxury kitchen with everything you would expect of a 5 star property.

Surroundings

The apartment is situated within easy walking distance of all major attractions; museums and galleries, shops and restaurants and is a five minute walk from a nearby private gym and pool. It's central location provides very easy walking to all major Edinburgh Festival attractions and has unprecedented views of the closing fireworks festival concert from Edinburgh Castle.

"The Edinburgh Festival goes out each year with literally many, very large bangs, in its annual 45-minute Festival Fireworks Concert, this year, on Sunday 4 September at 9pm: "Beneath Edinburgh Castle, the world-renowned Scottish Chamber Orchestra will play while a fireworks team based in the castle provides synchronised visual accompaniment.

You need a ticket to hear the SCO playing at the Ross Band Stand in Princes Street Gardens, but the majority of spectators tune into local radio to hear the live broadcast and watch the pyrotechnicians paint the sky in explosive colour"
