Local Area

St Stephen Street is located in the fantastic area known as Stockbridge, this area is like a small leafy village all of its own in the Newtown of Edinburgh.

Stockbridge has its own butchers, fishmongers and some of the best bars and restaurants in Edinburgh. Every Sunday and Thursday there is a local market with fresh, free range produce from local farms.

St Stephen street is right in the heart of the Stockbridge community and has a superb selection of Galleries, Coffee shops, Vintage stores and Boutiques ... one of our favourites being Lilies & Dreams this hidden gem stocks hand crafted handbags, luggage and quirky fashion accessories.

Lounge

This apartment was fully refurbished August 2012

A beautifully refurbished garden apartment with large windows giving an open and airy feel.

The apartment has a french "shabby chic" vibe throughout with a distressed leather couch and stylish chairs, stripped wooden floors throughout.

This apartment has an open plan lounge / kitchen.

There is a table and chairs to relax with a coffee and read the morning paper / watch the news on the wall mounted LCD before heading out into the city. Wifi throughout.

Bedroom

A stunning double bedroom again in the french "shabby chic" style with double wardrobes, dressing table, full length mirror and more importantly double french doors that lead out onto a hidden courtyard full of flowers, herbs and the odd chirping bird... you really do forget your in the middle of Edinburgh!

Bathroom

The bathroom has a large corner shower with Mira Sport, stylish blue glass sink... a perfect size for the apartment.

Kitchen

The kitchen is part of the lounge, separated by the 'L' shaped wooden worktop... all brand new modern appliances with stylish tiled splash back. The kitchen looks out onto the front courtyard / steps.

Another option

The owners of this fantastic apartment also have St Bernards apartment that is located only a 5 min walk away and can be booked together with this one.
